Showing Our Appreciation

The Business and Professional Women of North Carolina's Foundation is a non-profit organization that supports the goals and ideals of the BPW/NC federation.

Through the generosity of the members, friends and corporate sponsors, the Foundation has helped women become more skillful in the business world. It has provided scholarships to help women further their education. It has given women training in how to conduct meetings, plan budgets, plan events, present workshops, and create and present topics for public speaking.

Our donors are our biggest supporters. In an effort to acknowledge them, we recognize them at the Annual State Conference.

Through networking and fellowship, the members of BPW have formed a lasting bond.
